FROM COLVILLE AND THE UPPER COLUMBIA.—Mr. John U. Hofstetter, who left Colville on the 27th ult., gives us the following items:

An Indian, with an express from Mr. Haines, the British Gold Commissioner at Kootenai, arrived at Colville some five or six weeks ago, bringing news that gold diggings had been struck on the Columbia river, about 50 miles above "Boat Encampment," and also in the vicinity of the "Five Sisters," some distance above. Boat Encampment is about 275 miles above Fort Colville. On the arrival of the express at Colville, an express with the news was sent to Similkameen, and a return express brought authority to David McLaughlin to repair to the mouth of the Pen d'Oreille river and act as Collector of customs, taxes, etc., for the "Pen d'Oreille District." This district includes the mines on the Pen d'Oreille and Columbia rivers above the boundary line, and the same taxes and duties will be imposed upon miners as in the Kootenai mines.

A new Commissioner, named O'Reily, has been appointed for the Kootenai District, and Mr. Haines has been ordered to the mouth of the Pen d'Oreille to act as Commissioner for the Pen d'Oreille district.

A duty of fifty cents per ounce will hereafter be charged upon all gold brought from the British Possessions into the United States.

There are none but Chinese miners at work on the Columbia and Pen d'Oreille rivers, in the vicinity of Colville. Of these, there are some three or four hundred in all.

Twenty small boats, or batteaux, with about 75 men, left Colville some two weeks ago for the Upper Columbia mines. The parties going up in the boats were miners who had come down from Cariboo last fall and spent the winter at Colville. Three of the boats contain provisions, which were being taken up by speculators, who intend, if they cannot find a market for them on the Columbia, to have them packed across to Kootenai.

The snow was from 18 to 20 inches deep in Colville valley when Mr. Hofstetter left. The snow continues as far as Rock Creek, 33 miles this side of the Spokane river, and between these points it averages about one foot in depth. At Spokane ferry there is no snow, and the ferryman there was preparing his ground for gardening.

At Spokane Prairie there was an unusual amount of snow during the winter. The Hudson Bay Company have always wintered their stock there on account of its climate being so much milder than the Colville valley; but the past winter they lost about ninety head of their horses. Mr. Angus McLeod, who lives on that prairie, also lost all his cattle. No stock had died in the Colville valley.

On his way down, Mr. H. saw an Indian who had just come down from Pack River, and who informed him that the snow was from five to six feet deep between Pen d'Oreille and Pack river, on the Kootenai road. At Antoine Plante's it was about one foot in depth. Mr. H. thinks that parties who are now starting for Kootenai are at least one month too early, and that they will be compelled to lie by at least that length of time on the road, to await the disappearance of the snow.—W. W. Statesman.

THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 13, 1865.

COMMISERATE THEM.—At this hour of general congratulation, when heart speaks to heart by means of jubilant faces, there is still one class of the community incapable of the joy the nation feels, and to whom, as a need of humanity, not of respect or sympathy, we may properly extend a pitying commiseration. The rebel that throws down his arms, can become a loyal subject again, with a claim upon our respect, for the honesty of his faith has been tested by his courage shown on an hundred battle-fields, and proved by his placing life and property in jeopardy to carry out his mistaken views; but the miserable copper head who sought to perpetuate slavery and clamored for a peace that would secure that end, has no claim to respect and no show for ever obtaining his record during a life. For this we can truly commiserate them, while they have no claim for sympathy.

Long after this war ceases, when the name of rebel has become by popular magnanimity no longer a reproach, the appropriate and so well earned name of Copperhead will be still accursed. The organ of John F. Miller and Joe. Smith, with its vileness of guilt, has no mission in the future that can eventuate in success. Its record and the record of those who conduct it, is damning black. Oregon is as safe in the future to repudiate the whole pack, and consign them to worse than oblivion, as peace is sure to follow and insure prosperity to our country; or as the so oft reviled name of Lincoln, is certain to become hallowed and immortal in the calendar of great and pure souls of America.

PATRIOTIC AND LIBERAL(?)—We have great pleasure in announcing to the world, on the word of a prominent gentleman who was one of the Finance Committee appointed to collect funds for purposes connected with the celebration last evening, that not a dollar did he get from the "Peace Democrats." These miserable wretches plainly confessed their want of spirit to rejoice, by refusing to aid in a celebration that was intended to be general without regard to party. We rather like to see them consistent, and prefer to have them put the seal to their condemnation by just such a course. The fact is, they are "played out" in the fullest acceptation of the term. Their "bobbin is wound up" and Lee's surrender was their surrender just as much as Grant's victory is our victory. We are part of the American people, and they belong to Jeff. Davis still. Under these painful circumstances, it would be animal cruelty to compel them to glorify or rejoice. An illumination procured by such means, would have been profanation. Peace Democracy is not patriotism, nor is it rebellion. It lacks the heart for the one, and the spirit for the other; it is a miserable imitation of the last at a distance. If it was meant for the former it is an abortion.

"A LITTLE BOASTING."—"In all our speeches, lectures and writings in Oregon, we have constantly foretold events that have subsequently transpired."

"As true as magnet to the pole we have held—labored and suffered for the last four years—often under terrible fire in front, pecuniary loss, persecution and perfidy in the rear."

"The Mississippi river we helped to open to its mouth; Chattanooga we saw snatched from the foe; the bleeding soldiers of Belmont we helped to dress; at Fort Donelson, Shiloh, Corinth and Vicksburg we witnessed the carnage of contending battalions—we shared in all the sufferings of a soldier's life."

"If we were Governor Gibbs we would call the Legislature together and advise them to repeal the Specific Contract law and legalize greenbacks."

All the foregoing modest (?) glorification is from the Corvallis Gazette, and is supposed to emanate from Brother Boyakin. Having "opened the mouth of the Mississippi river" he now opens his own mouth to "let on about it." What a pity the parson is not Governor that he might trot the Legislature around a bit, while he could get on stilts and say "we" once or twice a minute. Those who have heard of "We, Us & Co.," can now understand who they are. They edit the Gazette to all appearances.

HIT ON THE WRONG MAN.—A few days since we alluded to a correspondent of the Victoria Chronicle who, over the signature of "J. B.," took pains to underrate Portland hotels and every thing else in general that belonged to our town. We, at the time, confounded the said "J. B." with "Yale," another Portland correspondent of the Chronicle, who we rightly supposed was a gentleman, living at the What Cheer House, and we so intimated. Our attention has been called to our error by the gentleman aggrieved, who, in a few well expressed lines, tells us who "J. B." is—handsomely answering for our hotels by giving his own experience in them. He says the Victorians can justly be proud of their French and Colonial, which can claim the palm as luxurious and expensive places of resort, while Portland can claim to have in the What Cheer, Western, New Columbian and Pioneer, a class of hotels that for comfort and good fare, offered at reasonable rates, cannot be excelled. We are glad to correct our own error and set "Yale" right.

BURNING CITIES IN 1777.—In that year one John Hill, Sr., whose real name was afterwards supposed to be Aithers, was found guilty of firing one of the English dock yards. He claimed to have been employed by Silas Deane, one of the American commissioners, with the consent of Dr. Franklin, and the object was to cripple the English naval power by destroying the prominent dock yards of the Government, and so assist the efforts of the colonies for their freedom. This man was convicted and hung, though by express order he had confined his efforts to burning public stores and works, and had not fired any private buildings. This case is now quoted to the English Government, as a precedent by which they can judge the rights and principles of belligerents, as for instance in the case of the St. Albans raiders.

MADE A CONFESSION.—Beale and Baker, convicted of the murder of old man Delaney, have made a confession that they killed the old man and carried of a great deal of money. Great excitement existed at Salem, and many stories were around at the time when the news was telegraphed to us, we have no further particulars of.

We were yesterday shown quite a number of samples of California petroleum, crude and refined, which have every appearance of being equal to the very finest quality of the Eastern article. All the samples have the peculiar odor which distinguishes the rock oil of the Pacific coast from that of the Atlantic slope, but they differ in color from inky darkness to the hue of "amber sherry," according to their relative crudeness or stage of refinement. The samples were obtained from springs on the property owned or controlled by Levi Parsons, and we are assured that the ability of California to produce not only any amount required for home consumption, but, for exporting to other countries, will be satisfactorily demonstrated at no distant date.—S. F. Alta, March 27th.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO APRIL 9.

Official Report of Lee's Surrender.

HEADQUARTERS Army of Potomac, April 9, 4:30 P.M.—To Hon. Edwin M. Stanton, Secretary of War: Gen. Lee surrendered the army of Northern Virginia this afternoon, upon terms proposed by myself. The accompanying additional correspondence will show the conditions in full.

April 9.—To U. S. Grant, Lieut.-Gen'l: I received your note this morning on the picket line, whither I had come to meet you and ascertain definitely what terms were embraced in your proposition of yesterday with reference to the surrender of this army. I now request an interview in accordance with the offer contained in your letter of yesterday, for that purpose.

Very respectfully, your ob't serv't,
(Signed) R. E. LEE, General.

April 9.—To Gen. R. E. Lee, Commanding C. S. A.: Your note of this day is but this moment (11:50 A. M.) received. In consequence of my having passed from the Richmond and Lynchburg Road, I am, at this writing, about four miles west of Walter's Church, and will push forward to the front for the purpose of meeting you. Notice sent on this road where you wish the interview to take place will reach me.

Very respectfully, your ob't serv't,
(Signed) U. S. GRANT, Lieut. Gen.

APPOMATTOX COURT HOUSE, April 9.—To Gen. R. E. Lee, Commanding C. S. A.: In accordance with the substance of my letter to you of the 8th inst., I proposed to receive the surrender of the army of Northern Virginia on the following terms, to-wit: Rolls of all the officers and men to be made in duplicate, one copy to be given to an officer designated by me, the other to be retained by such officer or officers as you may designate. The officers to give their individual paroles not to take up arms against the Government of the United States, until properly exchanged, and each company or regiment commander to sign a like parole for the men of their commands.

The arms, artillery and public property to be stacked and turned over to the officers appointed by me to receive them.

This will not embrace the side arms of officers or their private horses or baggage. This done, each officer and man will be allowed to return to his home not to be disturbed by the United States authority so long as they observe their parole and the laws in force where they may be.

Very Respectfully,
U. S. GRANT.

HEADQUARTERS, ARMY NORTHERN VA., April 9, 1865—Lieutenant-General Grant, commanding U. S. A.—General: I have received your letter of this date, containing the terms of surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia, as proposed by you. As they are substantially the same as those expressed in your letter of the 8th instant, they are accepted. I will proceed to designate the proper officers to carry the stipulation into effect.

Very respectfully your obedient servant,
R. E. LEE.

The following is the previous correspondence between General Grant and Gen. Lee, referred to in the foregoing:

CLIFTON HOUSE, VIRGINIA, April 8, 1865.—To E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War: The following correspondence has taken place between Lee and myself:

There has been no relaxation in the pursuit during its pendancy.

U. S. GRANT, Lieut-Gen.

April 7—Gen Lee commanding C S A.—General: The result of last week must convince you of the hopelessness of further persistence on the part of the Army of Northern Virginia in this struggle. I feel that it is so, and regard it my duty to shift for myself the responsibility of any further effusion of blood, by asking of you the surrender of that portion of the Confederate States Army, known as the Army of Northern Virginia.

Very respectfully your obedient servant,
U. S. GRANT, Lieut-Gen.

April 7.—To Lieutenant-Gen. Grant: I have received your note of this date. I am hardly of the opinion you express of the hopelessness of the further resistance on the part of the Army of Northern Virginia. I accord in your desire to avoid the useless effusion of blood: and, therefore, before considering your communication, ask the terms you will offer on condition of its surrender. (Signed) R. E. LEE.

April 8.—Gen. R. E. Lee, commanding, C. S. A.—General: Your note of last evening in reply to mine of the same date, asking conditions on which I will accept the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia, is just received. In reply, I would say that peace being my first desire, there is but one proposition, viz: That the men surrendered shall be disqualified from taking up arms against the Government of the United States, and [illegible] exchanged. I will meet you or designate officers to meet any officers you name, for the same purpose, at any point agreeable to you for the purpose of arranging definitely the terms upon which the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia will be received.

Very respectfully your obedient servant,
U. S. GRANT, Lieut.-Gen.

April 8.—I received at a late hour your note of to-day in answer of mine of yesterday. I did not intend to propose the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia, but to ask the terms of your proposition. To be frank with you, I do not think the emergency has arrived to call for the surrender of this army, but as the restoration of peace should be the sole object, I desire to know whether your proposals would tend to that end. I cannot therefore meet you with a view of surrendering the Army of Northern Virginia, but as far as your proposition may effect the force under my command and tend to the restoration of peace, I should be glad to meet you at ten A. M., to-morrow, on the old stage-road to Richmond, between the picket lines of the two armies.

Very respectfully, your ob't serv't,
(Signed) R. E. LEE, General.

April 9.—General R. E. Lee, Commanding C. S. A.: Your note of yesterday is received. As I have no authority to treat on the subject of peace, the meeting proposed for 10 o'clock A. M. to-day, could lead to no good. I will state, however, General, that I am equally anxious for peace with yourself, and the whole North entertains the same feeling. The terms upon which peace can be obtained, are understood by the South. By laying down their arms, they will hasten that most desirable event, save thousands of human lives, and hundreds of millions of property not yet destroyed. Sincerely hoping that all our difficulties may be settled without the loss of another life, I subscribe myself,

Very respectfully, your ob't serv't,
(Signed) U. S. GRANT, Lieut.-Gen.

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, April 9, 9:30, A. M.—To Lieut.-Gen. Grant—Thanks be to Almighty God for the great victory with which He has this day crowned you and the gallant army under your command. The thanks of this Department and the Government, and of the people of the United States, their reverence and honor, have been deserved and will be rendered to you and the brave and gallant officers and soldiers of your command for all time. E. M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, April 9, 9:30, P. M.—It is ordered that a salute of 200 guns be fired by all the headquarters of every fort and arsenal in the United States and at the Military Academy at West Point, on the day of the reception of this order, in commemoration of the surrender of General Robert Edmund Lee and the Army of Northern Virginia to Lieut.-Gen. Grant, and the army under his command.

Report of the receipt and execution of this order to be made to the Adjutant General at Washington. (Signed) E. M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

Operations Against Mobile.

The Herald's Mobile Bay correspondent, under date of March 31st, says: Granger's and Smith's corps marched from Danby's Mills on March 25th for Blakely, meeting slight resistance on the first day. On the 26th, the [illegible] corps moved towards the Spanish Fort, a strongly fortified earthworks, encountering and driving in the rebel cavalry. In the evening Granger [illegible] on the left of that fort. The 16th Corps [illegible] towards Blakely, encamping at Stell's Mills, five miles from that town. On the 26th [illegible] of the 27th our forces advanced on Spanish Fort, driving in the rebels, capturing the rifle pits and establishing our batteries within four hundred yards of the fort. On the 28th our forces were entrenched within 70 yards of the fort. Several lives have been lost by torpedoes strewn along the road. Our loss averages [illegible] per day. Three hundred of the enemy had been cut off by a portion of our force, but were not yet captured, owing to their having taken refuge in a swamp. Early in the morning of the 30th the rebels made an attack and were handsomely repulsed, with heavy loss. The rebel fleet of gunboats is on the right within musket range of our troops. Five of our gunboats and monitors have crossed Blakely bar, and others were arriving. On the 31st, siege guns and mortars were being placed in position. Heavy cannonading was opened on the Spanish Fort and continued all day. The result was unknown.

Steele's column left Pensacola, March 19th. He captured a train of cars at Greenwood. At Pollard, Ala., two rebel cavalry regiments were routed, and Brig. Clanton, 22 officers, 400 men and 540 horses were captured. Spaulding, with a detachment of the 2d Maine and the 1st Florida cavalry, cut the Mobile and Montgomery Railroad, and captured two wagon trains and 100 prisoners [illegible] had arrived at Blakely [illegible] with Canby.

[illegible] letters to the Herald state that the monitor Milwaukee was blown up by a torpedo on the [illegible] the Osage on the 29th. Both while operating against the Spanish Fort. Four seamen were killed on the Osage and [illegible]. Only one was injured on the Milwaukee. One of the turrets of the Milwaukee is still out of water, in working order and [illegible]. The Osage is submerged too deep to be used. They will probably be raised.

The rebels are busy sending down torpedoes and fire rafts. The [illegible] between six and seven thousand, [illegible] has been removed from Mobile by water, on the night of March 29th. It is rumored that Forrest and his whole force had reached Blakely. The rebel ram Nashville and the gunboats Tuscaloosa, Huntsville and Nashville are in Blakely river, evidently intending to give battle to our monitors in the bay. Our gunboats have had several skirmishes with water batteries, driving the rebels from their guns. The rebel troops in the Spanish fort are commanded by Maury [illegible].

Pursuit of Lee's Army after the Capture of Richmond.

The N. Y. Herald's correspondent's account of the pursuit of Lee's army [illegible]: The Twenty-fourth Corps reached near [illegible] Station, on the south side of the Railroad, on the evening of the 4th, with Gens. Grant and Ord, the Fifth Corps and the cavalry pushed on to Jetersville on Danville Railroad, and arrived without any fighting. The Second and Sixth Corps were following closely in the rear, and by the night of the 5th they were all upon the Danville road, and the Twenty-fourth was up to Burkesville Junction.

It appears that Lee ordered that portion of his army which was cut off by Ord [illegible] Sunday, to join him at Amelia C. H., leaving to leave them to attempt to reach Burkesville Junction and go on to Danville. When Gen Grant reached Nottoway C. H., staff officers arrived, stating that Sheridan had encountered the enemy in small force at Jettersville, driving him and making important captures.

Our column had intended going into camp, but Grant caught Lee's only hope, which was in forced marches, and so, therefore, ordered the advance to be continued.

The men who were already transported, on being informed of the stirring news from Sheridan, cheered to march all night, and started off with cheers. Wherever Grant was recognized as he rode along the line, the delight of the soldiers was expressed in the most enthusiastic manner. As one division exhausted itself in cheering another would take it up, and so it went along the whole column. Soon another dispatch was received from Sheridan, and its contents were such as to cause Grant to leave the road and cut across the country to Sheridan's headquarters. On the night of the 5th the Army lay in line of battle across three or four miles of country and taking Jettersville. Custar's division of cavalry lay on the right flank, and McKenzie's on the left. The infantry were formed with the sixth corps on the right, the fifth corps in the center and the second on the left. During the night Lee moved off many of his trains, and it was supposed he would attack the command. Ord was to march in the morning towards Lynchburg and cut off his retreat to any point south of that.

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, April 8.—To Major-General Dix, New York City:

MEMPHIS, April 8, via Cairo, April 9—The Bulletin of this morning says a report prevails, and is well authenticated, that Selma, Ga., was captured a few days ago by a cavalry force from Gen. Sherman's command.

Market Report.

CHICAGO, April 10.—The New York correspondent of the California Press writes under date of April 6th, as follows:

A better tone prevails in commercial circles and indications are that after the markets have cleared out the panic of merchandise there will be a better feeling generally. The steadiness of gold, or rather the refusal of that commodity to drop down to the level of public opinion, has a tendency to drop things steadily and counteract the influences of the war news. Our recent military successes are very naturally strengthening confidence in public credits and there is a corresponding demand for National securities for investment. Government securities are higher with an active demand. The stock market is active and higher. Wheat advanced two cents. Pork opened heavier and closed fifty cents higher, with a fair demand. Wool is steady. Hides are dull. Whisky has advanced three cents with little inquiry.

Cleared April 4th—Ship Garibaldi, Sutter & Co., and Ne Plus Ultra, Robinson, for San Francisco.

Miscellaneous News.

The Herald's correspondent who ascended James river from City Point to Richmond says, that just below Chapin's Farm was the new iron clad ram Texas. She had a plain flush deck, no armament or engines, and was of very light draft. The river was found lined with formidable works on both sides, the guns all remaining. Such had been the haste to evacuate, that some guns were spiked only with wrought nails.

Advices from Richmond dated Thursday evening, April 6th, say that several rebel civil officers retreated along with Lee, not having previously left the city.

The railroad from Richmond to Burkeville Junction will be opened immediately and used as a line of supply.

An attempt to raise some of the vessels sunk in James river is to be made.

The guns at Fort Darling were not destroyed as previously reported.

Many prisoners have arrived here and are taking the oath of allegiance.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—To Gen. Dix: A telegram from Grant, dated at noon to-day, at Farmville, 16 miles west of Burke's Station, says: The enemy have been pushed from the road toward Danville and are now pursued toward Lynchburg, and that he is very confident of receiving the surrender of Lee and what remains of his army.

(Signed) STANTON.

NEW YORK, April 8.—The Commercial's special says it is believed Lee has succeeded in reaching the Appomattox where it intersects the Lynchburg railroad, five miles west of Burkesville, and is pushing for the former place. Grant's superior cavalry will enable him to overhaul the fugitives. It is hinted there was a want of harmony and co-operation between some of the subordinate commanders during the advance on Burkesville Junction. Had not this been so, it is said Lee could not have got further than Amelia. (Official.)

The New York Herald's Richmond correspondent, referring to an interview with the Rebel Commissioners at Richmond says: The first conference lasted but a short time and was adjourned to the flag-ship Malvern. The result of the conference cannot be made public at present.

Confession of the Delany Murderers.

SALEM, April 12.—Beale and Baker, recently convicted for the murder of Daniel Delany, to-day made a full confession of killing him. Knowing ones say that some things astounding will be developed in the confession, which will be made public soon.

The London Era says about Southern recognition: Not even the recognition that America was in a desperate hurry to recognize Hungary when she revolted, will induce our statesmen to commit such a blunder as the recognition of a Power to which we could not send an Envoy without the probability of his being taken a prisoner and forwarded to Washington.

THE WHEELER & WILSON'S FAMILY SEWING MACHINE is truly worthy of the highest praise we can bestow upon it, and we take pleasure in commending them most heartily as everywhere worthy a place. [illegible] RANDALL, corner of First and Alder streets, have them for [illegible].

ASTONISHING DEVELOPMENTS—ONE HUNDRED HORSE THIEVES IN LEAGUE!—For several weeks past the efforts in Yamhill county have been on the alert for horse thieves and [illegible] succeeded in bringing to light the most extensive band of villains ever leagued together on the Pacific coast for purposes of plunder.

We have learned from a reliable source, not necessary to mention at this time, that one of the gang now in Yamhill jail, has disclosed the numbers, names, purposes and whereabouts of the gang. That there are about one hundred of them all told, leagued together by desperate oaths, and having their own means to recognize each other by signs, passwords, &c. That the gang extends from California to Idaho, by the way of the Rogue river, Umpqua and Willamette valleys, and that the principal market for the stolen horses is Idaho. On the 11th of February last, two horses were stolen in Lafayette, one belonging to Mr. McBride and the other to Mr. Giltner. These horses were tracked by the officers up through Polk county where they were lost sight of. Soon after Mr. Sellers, of Yamhill, being up in Polk, saw and recognized these horses, and gave account of it in Lafayette. One Nunley, of Lafayette, getting wind of this discovery, posted off in hot haste and notified the confederates up in Polk that they were discovered, and a stampede ensued. The deputy sheriff followed one of the horses from the place of discovery to the Waldo Hills, and arrested the man who has turned State's evidence, having in his possession Mr. McBride's horse. Giltner's horse was stolen from a stable by one Hembree, who is still at large, and the man now in jail, with the man Nunley, stood watching around Lafayette to see that the coast was clear, as they expressed it, and give warning. Nunley is now in jail also, not only as accessory to Hembree, but on a charge of stealing a horse himself last fall.

The maxim that "there is honesty among thieves," entirely failed with the man Hembree, as it now turns out that he not only helped to steal Giltner's horse, but that after stealing him, he persuaded his comrade in office to go and trade him off and then he, Hembree, traded boots with his comrade and went back and stole Giltner's horse again from the man who traded for him, so that when the second victim finding his horse gone and seeing the tracks in his barnyard, declared at once that the man who stole his horse was the same man that traded with him, which would have been a fact had it not been for the boot trade. After stealing him the second time, Hembree took Giltner's horse up the valley and shot him in a thicket near Humphrey's Ferry above Salem, because the horse would not swim the river. Mr. Walrad, in Salem, a hard-working man who came from Jackson county in September last, has had three horses stolen since that time, and is now without a team. The gang is not only an extensive one, being prepared to add perjury to larceny by swearing each other clear of every charge. When such things exist in a community, it is not to be wondered at that law abiding citizens sleep on loaded revolvers and keep double-barrelled shotguns loaded to the muzzle ready to blow the brains out of any one who unnecessarily intrudes on their premises after reasonable hours at night.

We have been permitted to examine several interesting letters that have been intercepted by the officers as they were passing from one thief to another, written in cipher, signs, writing, &c., but we are not permitted at present to make known their contents. Further particulars will be given after awhile. We hope the officers will be successful in arresting or driving the whole gang from the country.—Statesman.

THE CELEBRATION.—The all-absorbing topic of interest everywhere in the city yesterday, was up n the victories recently achieved by our Federal armies; and the only business of note transacted by merchants, [illegible] of tradesmen, was the preparations for the great celebration. At an early hour in the afternoon, most places of business were closed, and the people began their arrangements for carrying out the principles of order as set forth in the morning paper. To attempt a description [illegible] any on the display of fire works and illumination, would be futile to describe. [illegible] was prepared, whole city was fixed for a general illumination. Before the procession formed, on the corner of First and Stark streets, we made a hasty survey of the preparations, and after that had ample opportunity to witness the gorgeous display. The hotels, saloons, stores, shops, dwellings, etc., etc., were highly decorated and illuminated along the entire route chosen by the procession. Front street presented a truly magnificent sight. The "Bee" new building of Parrish & Co., corner of Front and Washington streets, was brilliant in its decorations, Hodge & Calef, Knapp, Burrell & Co., the New Columbian and What Cheer Hotels, Bonnell Bros., Vaughn's Block, and indeed the entire southern extremity of Front street, from that point, was gloriously illuminated. Mr. S. J. McCormick, of the Franklin Book Store, secured the [illegible] credit in his display of transparencies, [illegible] exhibiting Washington, Grant, Sheridan, &c.—the pride of America, and numerous engagements by land and by sea. North of Washington street, the entire city was lighted along both sides of Front, including the Pioneer, Arrigoni's, Fifield, West & Co., Millard & Van Schuyver, Smith & Davis, the O. S. N. Company's offices, Bauman Bros., [illegible], J. Seller & Co., and the entire Block, H. W. [illegible], H. Failing, A. B. Richardson, &c., &c., to Couch and Flanders, a distance of nearly a mile, very many of whom were handsomely fitted up. Outside of these limits every Engine House in the city, and a great many private dwellings were illuminated. Capt. [illegible], Capt. Ainsworth, S. D. Smith, [illegible], Capt. Strang, L. H. Wakefield, Dr. [illegible], David Monastes, [illegible], Frazar, Ladd, and hundreds we could name, had their residences illuminated. We must mention that of Mr. Foster, corner of Morrison and Third street. The State motto of Connecticut, [illegible]—"He who planted still sustains," [illegible] burning light from the house [illegible] nature of the illumination. E. G. Randall, corner of Alder and First streets, had his building [illegible] decorated. But we will quit. To go on and [illegible] illustrations would give no idea of the [illegible] of the procession, which formed at 7½ P. M. [illegible] of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s office, under the [illegible] of Col. John McCraken, with his aid, S. B. [illegible], and the following assistant Marshals: [illegible] Mark A. King, [illegible] Merick, 2d Division, [illegible] C. N. Humiston, 3d Division, C. P. [illegible]. The procession was composed of [illegible] citizens of Vancouver, the county, [illegible] Two brass bands and a military band [illegible]. The Oregon Iron Works was represented with a heavy truck, drawn by two horses, on [illegible] the workmanship of the institution. [illegible] transparencies. The Printers of the city [illegible] and made a very handsome display. [illegible] large transparency 12 feet long by 4½ feet [illegible] and appropriately gotten up. The following are some of the sentiments expressed on their [illegible]:

"[illegible] Printer"—Gen. Grant, we honor him,—a [illegible] craft.

"The Printers' Union"—The Union of the States.

"The Victory and the Loyal Press—an effective [illegible] a final cure of secession."

"The rebel press North."—May they have empty [illegible] and no sorts, blunt bodkins and be troubled with [illegible].

Several other features were represented by the Printers, [illegible]. All along the line of march, crowds cheered the procession from balconies, &c., until it reached the Plaza. There, speeches were made by Judge [illegible], Governor Gibbs, Hon. J. H. Mitchell, [illegible] J. N. Dolph, Esq., and Rev. Mr. Hines, as they were introduced by the President. After which, the procession marched to [illegible] street under the direction of the Marshal's [illegible], headed by the Mechanics' Brass [illegible] the crowd dispersed—every one participating, [illegible] they had good cause to be thankful for [illegible] until the Fourth Anniversary of the bombardment of Fort Sumter.

[illegible] OF COL. LAWRENCE.—The following is the [illegible] alluded to by us yesterday, in speaking [illegible] before the Ladies' Christian Commission. [illegible] a large audience will be present to [illegible] for one reason, Colonel L. would [illegible] talk to empty benches; again, the cause—[illegible] ladies of Portland—just now demands your [illegible]. Remember the commission, is our [illegible]. We have not very much longer time to show our [illegible] is the great object, from present appearances:

[illegible] CORRESPONDENCE.

PORTLAND, March 28th, 1865.

[illegible] LAWRENCE—SIR: The ladies of the Christian [illegible] gratified to learn from your note of [illegible], that although unable to lecture at the time [illegible], you gave reason to hope that they [illegible] have the pleasure of hearing you for the benefit of the Society.

[illegible] would fall, in the regular course, on the [illegible] 11th, but if an earlier day would be convenient [illegible] would be very glad, and esteem it a [illegible] reply. Respectfully,

MRS. WM. S. GADNEY,
[illegible] Ladies' Christian Commission.

PORTLAND, March 29th, 1865.

[illegible] MY DEAR MADAM: I have received your note of yesterday, requesting me to lecture [illegible] of the Christian Commission. I do not [illegible] talent in the line of prepared lectures [illegible] having been that of extempor[illegible]. [illegible] will allow me to talk to the audience something of the war—its armies, battles and soldiers, reading [illegible] experience has taught me, and freely express [illegible] of principles and men, I shall [illegible] the invitation.

[illegible] Madam, very respectfully yours,
CHAS. H. LAWRENCE.

[illegible] with the above correspondence, Colonel [illegible] will [illegible] the citizens of Portland at the [illegible] Church this (Wednesday) evening, at 7½ [illegible]. All are invited to attend. Admission 50 [illegible].

MRS. AMORY HOLBROOK,
President Ladies' Christian Commission.

[The [illegible] was put in type for yesterday's edition but [illegible] of a postponement of the address, on [illegible] celebration. The time will be announced [illegible] upon.—REP.]

[illegible] &c.—Long before the time yesterday, [illegible] was to assemble for the parade and [illegible] the prominent houses and [illegible] got for the night. The ladies—who [illegible] by all good judges, to be it for Union, to a [illegible] patriotic demonstrations on their part by [illegible] on the outer walls. Flags floated [illegible] window; all who had "The Red, [illegible] with the Stars of a Union, unbroken [illegible] threw them to the breeze, and they never [illegible]. It was, from the rising of [illegible] a carnival of jubilee in Portland. People from the [illegible] to shout, "God bless our [illegible]. All seemed to feel, speak, look, act and [illegible] Rebellion is soon to be no more; that the [illegible] hordes had become but the barracks [illegible]; that no more should we hear of [illegible] cannon, belching forth on the banks of the James, in defence of rebellion.

[illegible] ATTEMPT TO KILL.—An Indian, named [illegible] of very good intellectual powers, was discussing [illegible] in a logging field near Baker's Landing, [illegible] week, with —— Caples—son of the Doctor—[illegible] became irritated and struck him a furious [illegible] the head with a lever. Baptiste was thought [illegible] dead, and Dr. Griswold was sent for, but he again [illegible] direction of Prosecuting Attorney, Hodg[illegible] warrant was sued out of Justice Gray's Court [illegible] arrest of Caples—on a charge of "assault with intent to kill," which if found guilty, should be sufficient [illegible] imprisonment during a certain term of years. [illegible], however, the Justice fined defendant [illegible] and costs. The Indian is said to have been loyal [illegible] the aggressor loyal to the defunct [illegible].

[illegible]—Charles Pleasants, who was recently [illegible] by the premature discharge of a cannon at Salem, [illegible] a certain party, who has, without [illegible] authority from him, been collecting money for his [illegible] of charity. The party alluded to, [illegible] collected $20, but only returned [illegible] and destroyed the paper containing [illegible] of those who had contributed. Mr. P. desires [illegible] may have contributed, to call at the New [illegible] get their money, as he is not in the situation to require charity. The name of the imposter was [illegible] to us.

[illegible]—"The Types" and "the Typos" sometimes [illegible] egregious blunders. In our report of yesterday [illegible] the meeting of the night previous, we [illegible] made to say: "Gov. Gibbs then made a short, stirring speech, from the balcony of the OREGONIAN Block," which happened by the compositor,—"leaving [illegible] it should have read, "from the balcony of the [illegible] Hotel, opposite the OREGONIAN Block." We have not so much vanity as some give us credit for. [illegible] to the praise on that occasion for lightning.

[illegible]—George, the Kanaka, yesterday climbed [illegible] staff in front of Willamette Engine House No. 1, [illegible] the halliards, which was a most daring [illegible] as he reached the height of one hundred and seventy-five feet.

[illegible] One of the men employed in loading the [illegible] on the Plaza yesterday was injured by a voluntary [illegible] while ramming down the cartridge. The injuries inflicted are not supposed to be serious or lasting. We could not learn the name of the man.

[illegible] CANNON.—The workmen employed at the Iron Works of Mr. Monastes, on First street, yesterday [illegible] a cannon, and had it shooting during the afternoon.

MISS DEANE'S CONCERT.—The Concert of Miss Deane, to be given at Willamette Theatre this evening, is to be an excellent affair. The patronage of the public should be liberally extended to the lady on this occasion. See advertisement for full particulars.

Brandreth's Pills—Their Qualities.—In small and repeated doses the effect of Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills is to increase the activity of the secreting and excreting organs. The slime discharged becomes more liquid and contains a larger proportion of bile. The operation of this extraordinary medicine does not stop here; the membranes of the lungs, of the eyes, and all the membranes become moister, the skin becomes damper and at the same time warmer where too cool, and cooler if too warm. So that Brandreth's Pills seem to vitalize and promote excretions generally. In large doses, say from five to ten Pills, they act as a powerful purgative, cleansing the bowels first of their contents, and then acting upon the internal organs, cleansing them of slime, mucus, or any concretions not required for their healthy action. Thus the action of Brandreth's Pills is what is required to bring about that state in all the organs which result in their full restoration to health. The blood vessels, as well as the blood, are thus restored to perfect purity and vigor.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters
Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal forces which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.
The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

A Word to the Aged!
In the decline of life, the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

As a tonic, cordial and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females:

WISTAR'S BALSAM
—OF—
WILD CHERRY!
HAS BEEN USED FOR NEARLY HALF A CENTURY,
WITH THE MOST ASTONISHING SUCCESS IN CURING
Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat.
Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup,
Liver Complaint, Bronchitis,
Difficulty of Breathing,
Asthma, and every affection of the
THROAT, LUNGS, AND CHEST, INCLUDING EVEN CONSUMPTION.
There is scarcely one individual in the community who wholly escapes, during a season, from some one, however slightly developed, of the above symptoms—a neglect of which might lead to the last named, and most to be dreaded disease in the whole catalogue. The power of "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree over this class of complaints is well known; so great is the good it has performed, and so great the popularity it has acquired.

In this preparation, besides the virtues of the Cherry, there are commingled with it other ingredients of like value, thus increasing its value ten fold, and forming a Remedy whose power to soothe, to heal, to relieve, and to cure disease exists in no other medicine yet discovered.

The unequalled success that has attended the application of this medicine in all cases of
PULMONARY COMPLAINTS
has induced many physicians of high standing to employ it in their practice, some of whom advise us of the fact under their own signatures. We have space only for the names of a few of these:—

S. H. FINLEY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal.
E. BOYDEN, M. D., Exeter, Me.
ALEXANDER HATCH, M. D., China, Me.
R. FELLOWS, M. D., Hill, N. H.
W. H. WEBB, M. D., Cape Vincent, N. Y.
W. B. LYNCH, M. D., Auburn, N. Y.
ABRAHAM SKILLMAN, M. D., Boundbrook, N. J.
H. D. MARTIN, M. D., Mansfield, Pa.

The proprietors have letters from all classes of our fellow citizens, from the halls of Congress to the humblest cottage, and even from beyond the seas; for the fame and virtue of WISTAR'S BALSAM have extended to the uttermost bounds of the earth, without any attempt on our part to introduce it beyond the limits of our own country.

TO CALIFORNIANS AND OREGONIANS.
After October 1, 1863, all genuine WISTAR'S BALSAM of WILD CHERRY for the Pacific Coast will be enclosed in a new wrapper which will bear the printed names of both SETH W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, Mass., and JOHN D. PARK, Cincinnati, Ohio, as well as fac-simile of the signatures of "I. BUTTS," "SANFORD & PARK," and "H. WISTAR, M. D."

Cure Your Cold, Save Your Lungs.
NEWELL'S
PULMONARY SYRUP
HAS CURED THOUSANDS!
And it will Cure You!
"A Cough is generally the effect of a Cold, which has either been improperly treated or entirely neglected. When it proves obstinate there is Always reason to fear the consequences, as this shows a weak state of the lungs, and is often the forerunner of Consumption.—[Buchanan's Domestic Medicine.

STOP THAT COUGHING!
Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supercede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure; but
Pulmonary Syrup!
Is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by its surprising curative powers.

WHAT KILLED HIM!
Dr. Hall, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving, asks the above question, and adds: "He might have remained with us for some years to come, had it not been for advice, kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance.
He Had a Cold!
Which, by some injudicious prescription, had been converted into asthma." Let me say to Dr. Hall that that "prescription" was not
PULMONARY
SYRUP.
KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE, use it freely, give it to your children upon the slightest indications of a Cold, and you will think and speak of it as all do who have become acquainted with its merits.

AN AMERICAN BARONESS MUNCHAUSEN.—A writer in Chambers' Journal thus concludes an account of a visit to Astley's to see Adah Isaac Menken in "Mazeppa":

As for Mazeppa I did not know whom I was looking at till an old gentleman, apparently of the Jewish persuasion, was so good as to hand me over a little pamphlet in a yellow cover, for which he refused to accept any remuneration whatever. This naturally excited my astonishment, yet not so much so as the contents of the work in question. This professed to be a brief biography of Adah Isaacs Menken, and although brief it was very startling. It began by stating that this lady was of the Hebrew faith, which she had always loved and been a warm defender of; that while yet a child she mastered the French, Latin and Hebrew languages, and at twelve years old translated Homer's Iliad from the original tongue.

At fourteen she was première danseuse at the French Opera House in New Orleans, and upon the occasion of her farewell benefit presents of diamonds and gold were bestowed upon her to [illegible] the value of $2,000 (the bracelet alone [illegible] $700." Migrating to Cuba she was adopted by a wealthy Spanish family. Here she had horses, carriages, diamonds, etc., at her command in profusion; but in consequence of a lawsuit she became discontented, and gathering up horses, dogs, etc., went to Texas and thence to Mexico, where she was again prima [illegible] danseuse. After this career of triumph she seems to have returned to Texas; and "out hunting one day with her groom and dogs a party of Indians took her captive." A prisoner in their hands for more than three weeks she was rescued after a sanguinary engagement by a company of Texas Rangers, who took her to Austin, where the army was then stationed, commanded by General Harney. Here she remained at headquarters, "breakfasting with the family," "assisting the General in translating Spanish documents into French and English," "reviewing the troops and commanding the regiment with the dignity and precision of an old soldier."

Tired of military life she returned to New Orleans and gave herself up to literature and the study of German, also to music and painting. Then, too, she published a volume of poetry called "Memories"—which ought, we should think, to be interesting if the contents are indicated by the title—but yet she had not become so etherialized as to neglect her own affairs. She again visited Texas "to look after a large tract of land that belonged to her." She established a newspaper of her own at Liberty, and became a teacher of Latin and French in a young ladies' academy in that city. Then she took to the stage for the first time as an actress as Bianca, in the tragedy of "Fazio," at New Orleans, in 1858. Here, too, she was "crowned with flowers and presented with a set of diamonds (toujours diamonds) and a golden goblet."

Although thus successful, she left the stage and studied sculpture, "working in the studio of T. D. Jones, at Columbus," then went to Cincinnati, and becoming principal contributor to the Israelite, the leading Jewish paper in America. Her reply to the Churchman in defense of Baron Rothschild's admission to Parliament was copied widely in England, translated into French and German Journals and for which [sic] she received an autograph letter of praise and thanks from Baron Rothschild, calling her 'the inspired Deborah of her race.'"

We have nearly done now. "The circumstances of her family compelled her to return to the stage. She played several engagements West, and while at Dayton, in the State of Ohio, she was elected by a complimentary vote, Captain of the Dayton Light Guard, and presented with a handsome sword and epaulettes."

The magnitude of our commercial interests with China is not very generally comprehended. In the fiscal year 1862-63, according to Mr Cole, M. C. for California, the United States imported goods from China to the amount of $10,901,0[illegible], and our exports to China were considerably over that figure. From San Francisco alone we shipped to Shanghai nearly four and a quarter millions of dollars in treasure, besides large sums in private hands, and nearly nine thousand flasks of quicksilver. Yet this is only the embryo condition of a commerce of which this coast is to be the center.

An Irishman had to give the password at the Battle of Fontenoy at the time the great Saxe was Marshal. "The pass word is Saxe now don't forget it, Pat," said the Colonel.

"Sax—faith and I won't; wasn't my father a miller?"

"Who goes there?" said the sentinel, after he had arrived at the Pass.

Pat whispered confidentially, "Bags, yer honor."

An Irish beggar recently made his appearance at a New York hotel, when the landlord said to him, "Why don't you go to work? A hearty man like you should not be seen begging."

He said he could not get work.

"Well, then, enter the army. There you can get $400 bounty, besides $13 a month and found."

"Found!" replied Pat, "yes, by jabbers, found dead on the battle-field!"

The report of the commissioner of patents shows that 5020 patents were granted during the last year—1862—to citizens of the United States. Of these 600 were granted to citizens of Massachusetts, 46 to citizens of Maine, 49 to citizens of New Hampshire, 42 to citizens of Vermont, 81 to citizens of Rhode Island, and 246 to the citizens of Connecticut. The total receipts were $240,919; the total expenditures were $229,868. The patent fund on hand at the commencement of the present year, adding the surplus of last year, $5[illegible] 562.

DUELISTS INDICTED.—In Virginia City, Nev., Ross Fourke and Charles Safford, principals, and Finnegan La Page, McNabb and Colandio, seconds, have been indicted by the Grand Jury of Storey county.

A STARTLING ANNOUNCEMENT.—A quack doctor has recently started, who says in his advertisement, "I can bring witnesses to prove the efficacy of my pills, which is more than any one else in my line can do."

No man who is ever thoroughly ashamed of himself should be classed among the irreclaimable. The real fool never regrets the right thing, or for the right reason, and under no circumstances sees himself as others see him.

CINCINNATI, March 26 1864

Messrs TILTON & McFARLAND, Safe Manufacturers, Boston, Mass

Gentlemen: From representations made to me by Mr Lillie I was induced to purchase of him one of his

So Called "Fire Proof Safes."

On the 18th of February last a fire occurred in our block, which destroyed a number of buildings, and our own with the rest. We found our books, papers and all in the safe. After the fire the so called "safe" was taken from the ruins and upon opening it we found that Everything had been Destroyed.

We send you the safe with what is left of the papers, and you will see that not one of them is legible or strong enough to sustain its own weight. Having the curiosity to know how our neighbors fared in this fire, we noticed McKenna & Hurds just opening their safe (TILTON & McFARLAND'S make) and its contents were found to be

In Perfect Condition.

This led us to further investigation, and we found to our astonishment that [illegible] amount of combustible material in Messrs McK. & H.'s cellar—such as [illegible] was subjected to a much greater heat than that of our own, we being in the cloth[illegible] business [illegible] in the cellar. There was another of Lillie's safes he subjected to the same fire, faring [illegible] better than ours.

Very respectfully
Your obedient servants
(Signed) GEO. L. CHESEBORO & CO.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS AT tended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or disease of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man, he stands erect, he moves with a firm step, his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active, and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER,
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING
OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY it in these cases and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

ALLEN'S
LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which render it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies), or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

For sale by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
